The undersigned affiant after being duly sworn on oath deposes and states as follows:

That my name is Jack M. McCooke and I was born in Onslow County, North Carolina, on September 27, 1930, that my grandparents actually in day to day use dropped the "Mc" from McCooke and went by the name of "Cooke", that my parents and I likewise have gone by the name of Cooke except as hereafter explained, that unbeknownst to me, my father, in connection with my birth certificate, actually listed my birth under the name of McCooke in accordance with the copy of the birth certificate which is attached to this affidavit and made a part hereof, that I was married to Marion Elizabeth Wiek in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, on November 11, 1960, at that time I gave my name as Cooke which was consistent with my knowledge at that time, that subsequent to my marriage I obtained employment at The Boeing Company in Seattle, Washington, and was required to obtain a birth certificate when, for the first time, I found out my name was legally and formally McCooke, that on learning this I have changed my social security records, my employment records, and other similar records to McCooke, which is my true and legal name, that my wife, Marion Elizabeth, has also changed her employment and other records to indicate the married name of McCooke,

That it is desired and requested that the marriage records of the state of Idaho and any other appropriate governmental authority in connection with the marriage above described, be changed to show my name as McCooke rather than Cooke.

Dear Sir,

I am writing in regards to your advice or requirements concerning a change in name on my marriage certificate. My wife and I were married on November 12, 1966 in Coeur D'Alene. I was then under the impression that my legal name was Taja Bhavan. Upon applying for my passport (Xerox enclosed) the next year I was informed that my father did not legally change my name when I went to live with him in 1958. My wife and I spent 2 years in Australia where I checked that my father not only never changed my name but did not do his own either. Since my return to Canada and university I have been seriously considering which to change/re-affirm. With my graduation, some legal matters, and my wife's assent I have this year returned to my legal name in all matters but this remaining task which affects my wife and our two children. The Vital Statistics here in British Columbia suggested that the change may be merely a formality on your part. This is what I am enquiring about. My wife's maiden name was Boulden, her date of birth July 11, 1941. Your kind assistance or advice would be most appreciated. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Colin A. Cole
